Watch interventional radiologist Alex Powell, M.D., from Baptist Cardiac & Vascular Institute, perform a uterine fibroid embolization. The webcast will be moderated by interventional radiologist James Benenati, M.D., and will be simultaneously broadcast in Spanish.

Embolization is a nonsurgical alternative to hysterectomy that shrinks uterine fibroids by cutting off their blood supply.

Don't miss this live webcast. It's not a reality show. It's reality.
